Salt Lakers Get Surprise

The American Fork High School basketball team issued the promised surprise to the Salt Lake East Side High School team in one of the fastest games ever played here last Friday night. The visitors showed good speed during the first half of the game, which ended in a score of 16 to 15 in their favor. In the second half, however, the city lads lacked the staying qualities of their country cousins and the game ended with a score of 32 to 26.

Lee Probst starred for the Salt Lakers and was particularly strong in pitching from the foul line, but was none ahead of Blinch, who did the basket shooting from the foul line for American Fork. The game was devoid of any unpleasantness, and the visitors went home happy.

The Hibrows claim that the use of a medicated tissue screen will make kissing "safe and sanitary." It may make it sanitary, but there is not any way to make kissing safe.

Two Good Shows

By special arrangement the management of the Opera House has secured the Devere-Stewart Stock company for two performances, Friday and Saturday evenings, Jan. 1st and 2nd. Friday evening the play will be a dramatization of A. Conan Doyle's world famous book, "The Sign of the Four," and on Saturday evening "The Little Mother" will be produced. Each play is a real production from every viewpoint.

Miss Maynon Stewart, the leading lady, is a very charming artist and her work is pleasing, convincing and refreshing. She is supported by a company composed of a number of well known players, among whom are: Leon McKeonolds, Seldy Roach, D. L. Mack, C. M. Devere and others.

The company will be pleasantly remembered as being here some time ago. Those who heard them then, will undoubtedly go again, and those who did not, will miss much if they do not make the most of the present opportunity.

Popular prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Reserved seats at the usual place.

Notice

On Wednesday, January 6th, 1915, we close our store for stock taking. At that time our merchandise is all listed. We also have to list all our unpaid bills. If you are owing us and the account is due, please call in and settle same before the first day of January 1915, as we need it and it will also save us the trouble of listing it. If you cannot pay same, please call and renew the note and oblige Yours truly,
